Moose Offer 'Carlift' for Easter Rites

For the second consecutive year in Torrance, and the fourth year nationally, the Loyal Order of Moose fraternity will "carlift" thousands of persons to the church of their choice this Easter, according to Joseph Platt, civic affairs committee chairman.

Automobiles and drivers will be placed at the disposal of persons otherwise unable to get to church on Easter morning by calling the local Moose headquarters.

The Easter carlift is designed to make automobiles available to the aged, physically handicapped persons and those unable to attend the church of their choice because of a lack of transportation. "We believe," according to Platt, "that every person in America should be given the opportunity of attending their church on Easter Sunday, and the Moose 'Easter carlift' hopes to make this possible."

At the evening worship hour at 7:30 the pastor will discuss "The Signs of His Coming." A modern crib-nursery is provided at all regular services of the church. Following the evening service the sound, color film entitled, "One Wonderful Week" will be shown for those interested in having their children attend a Christian summer camp.
